

Erica Douglas, P.E.
Solid Waste Manager
City of Lebanon

Erica Douglas is the Solid Waste Manager for the City of Lebanon. She has been with the city for 12 years and previously worked as the Assistant City Engineer with a focus on asset management. Prior to working in Lebanon, Erica worked in the private sector at Pathways Consulting as a Design Engineer. She was also part of the union as the Treasurer and helped negotiate the union contract. In her community she has served on the school board as the Treasurer and Clerk, and as Supervisor of the Checklist for her town. Erica lives in Croydon with her husband and daughter. She loves to travel, hike and garden.
